Retention

Any Customer Data may be retained, deleted and/or discarded without previous notice if the Customer fails to fulfil any of its obligations or breaches any clause on this Terms and Conditions, including without limitation the obligation to pay the Fees.

Term and termination

Term

The Term for this subscription is 12 months that shall commence on the date set out in the Subscription. Thereafter, the term of the subscription shall renew automatically for the same period.

Any other agreement stipulated and signed in the Subscription Statement shall supersede the paragraph above.

This automatic renewal shall always be subject to Motive.co's right to review and update the Fees at any time. Any Fees change will be notified to the Customer at least [45] days before the renewal date via email, to the email address provided to Motive.co for invoicing.

Either Party has the right to issue written notice to the other of its intention to not renew. Such notice must be given no later than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the last day of the then-current Term. Termination shall be effective as of the last day of the then-current Term.

Termination for Cause

If either Party materially breaches any of its duties or obligations hereunder, and such breach is not cured, or the breaching Party is not diligently pursuing a cure to the non-breaching Party's sole satisfaction, within twenty (20) calendar days after written notice of the breach, then the non-breaching Party may terminate the licence hereunder for cause after such twenty day period.

In the event any such breach causes immediate material harm or significant risks, as determined by Motive.co, to the technology underlying the Product or the Product itself, Motive.co may immediately suspend all Customer's access rights, provided that Motive.co shall provide Customer with immediate notice of such suspension. Motive.co will resume the licence hereunder when such breach is remedied and all issues related thereto are resolved, without prejudice to its right to terminate the licence.

In addition, Motive.co may suspend or terminate Product access (a) if it is required to do so by law; (b) when the Subscription Statement has expired or been terminated; (c) when providing such access to the Product could create a substantial economic burden as determined by Motive.co in its reasonable good faith judgement; or (d) providing Product access could create a security risk or material technical burden as determined by Motive.co in its reasonable good faith judgement.

Suspension for non-payment

Motive.co reserves the right to suspend Customer's access to any Product in the event of delay or non-payment of the corresponding recurring Fees overdue. Motive.co shall reactivate the Product once the payment is received.

Effects of Termination

Upon the expiration or termination of the Customer's subscription for any reason:

- a) All undisputed Fees hereunder will be due and payable.
- b) Each Party shall destroy all Confidential Information and any other data, programs, and materials of the other Party, received in connection with the Subscription. In the case of Customer Data, Motive.co shall, upon termination of this Agreement, provide Customer with a final export of the Customer Data and shall certify the destruction of any Customer Data within the possession of Motive.co.

The parties agree to work in good faith to execute the foregoing in a timely and efficient manner. This Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Survival

The terms of clauses Termination, Motive.co Representations and Warranties, Limitation of Liability, Confidential Information and Privacy and General, survive termination.

Customer's obligations

Customer agrees that the Product and other entitlements ordered hereunder are neither contingent on the delivery of any future functionality or features nor dependent on any oral or written public comments made by Motive.co regarding future functionality or features.

Customer acknowledges that the transmission of data through the Internet is relative, since they circulate on heterogeneous networks whose characteristics and technical capacities are diverse, which are from time to time overloaded and/or may be subject to dysfunctions, rerouting, or security breaches. Use of the Product is in this respect made at Customer's own risks and under Customer's sole responsibility.

Customer is responsible for any and all activities carried out in the Customer's account, and must comply with all applicable local, state-wide, national or international laws, treaties and regulations related to the use of the Product, including, without limitation, uses related with data privacy, international communications and transmission of technical or personal data.

In order for Motive.co to provide Customer with the best Product possible, Customer agrees to provide Motive.co with complete, accurate, and updated information at all times. Incorrect or outdated information may lead to errors or delays, for which Motive.co will not be responsible.

Customer will not, and shall ensure third parties do not:

- Distribute, publish, or allow access or linking to the Product from any location or source other than Customer's location.
- Enable or permit use or disclosure of the Product other than as authorised under this Agreement.
- Commercialise (that is, sell, rent, trade or lease), copy or store the Product;
- Use, copy, distribute or modify the Product content in any "service bureau" or "timesharing" business among others, unless specified in the Subscription Statement;
- Access the Product underlying technology for any other purposes other than bona fide use of the Product in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.
- Modify, decompile, reverse engineer or otherwise alter the Product underlying technology or content, or API.

- Use robots, spiders, scraping or other technology to access or use Product underlying technology or content or the Web Site or the Products in general to obtain any information beyond what Motive.co provides to you under these Terms and Conditions.
- Use the API and/or the Product in a manner that exceeds reasonable request volume, constitutes excessive or abusive usage or otherwise fails to comply or is inconsistent with any reasonable instructions or policy published by Motive.co.
- use the Product to: (i) infringe Motive.co's or Motive.co licensor's copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret or other property rights or rights of publicity or privacy; (ii) transmit any viruses or other computer programming routines that may damage, detrimentally interfere with, surreptitiously intercept or expropriate any system or data; or (iii) interfere, disrupt or attempt to use the Products underlying technology to gain unauthorised access to any computer system, server, network or account for which it does not have authorisation to access or at a level exceeding its authorisation; or (iv) in general create liability for Motive.co or cause Motive.co to lose (in whole or in part) the services of Servicer Provider ISPs or other suppliers.

Customer agrees to comply with the following API and/or Product Security Standards ("Security Standards"):

- Security Breaches. A "Security Breach" is defined as a breach of security of a Customer's facility, systems or site where the Product has been accessed or used by an unauthorised person. In the event of a Security Breach, Motive.co may conduct a security audit.
- Notification and Timing. Notwithstanding any other legal obligations Customer may have, Customer agrees to immediately notify Motive.co in writing upon Customer's discovery of a Security Breach. Customer agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Motive.co of Customer's detection of a Security Breach no more than twenty-four (24) hours after detection of a Security Breach. Notwithstanding the foregoing, under no circumstances will more than two (2) days pass between Customer's detection of a Security Breach and Motive.co being notified.
- Audit. Motive.co reserves the right to periodically audit the Systems to ensure compliance with the requirements of this Agreement. Non-intrusive network and application security scans may be performed randomly without prior notice.
- Audit Results and Response. Motive.co will provide Customer with detailed results of any security audit performed pursuant to these Security Standards. Customer will be granted thirty (30) days to resolve any issue that we identify through a security audit.

Should Customer fail to resolve such identified issues, Motive.co may immediately suspend or terminate Customer's access to the API and the Product without further notice to Customer.

- Customer agrees to adhere at all times to reasonable security practises, as specified in current industry literature on topics relevant to Customer's interaction with Motive.co. In the event such best practises conflict with these Security Standards, Customer will comply with these Security Standards.

Fees and Invoices

Fees

Customer shall be responsible for and shall pay to Motive.co the corresponding Fees according to the Subscription Statement (and any agreed statements of work, if any) applicable from time to time. Except as expressly agreed or otherwise set out herein, all Fees are non-cancellable and non-refundable and are stated net of any applicable withholding taxes.

Payment

Unless otherwise specified in the Subscription Statement (and any agreed statements of work, if any), the Subscription shall be prepaid. Fees are due in the currency set forth in the applicable Subscription Statement.

Motive.co gives customers the possibility to pay electronically by Visa and Mastercard credit cards through its subscription platform.

Invoices

Invoices for the Fees are issued automatically at the payment time, and Customer agrees that Motive.co may issue its invoices to Customer in electronic form, in accordance with applicable legislation.

Late payment

Without prejudice to Motive.co's rights to suspend or terminate the provision of the Product hereunder, overdue amounts are subject to interest at a rate of one percent per month.

Taxes

All Fees are exclusive of Taxes. Customer will pay an amount equal to any Taxes arising from or relating to this Agreement or an applicable statement of work which are paid by or are payable by Motive.co. "Taxes" means any form of sales, use, value added or other form of taxation and any fines, penalties, surcharges or interest, but excluding any taxes based solely on Motive.co's net income. If Customer is required to withhold or deduct any portion of the payments due to Motive.co, Customer will increase the sum payable to Motive.co by the amount necessary so that Motive.co receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had Customer made no withholdings or deductions or provide Motive.co the corresponding tax withholding certificate.

IPR, IPR Claims and Data Claims

IPR

Motive.co represents and warrants that Motive.co owns or has a licence to all right, title, and interest to the Product (including for the avoidance of doubt, improvements to the Product commissioned by Customer) and associated documentation, and the right to provide the Product. Except as expressly stated otherwise in these Terms and Conditions, Motive.co retains all such rights. Motive.co and Motive's name, logo, trade names and trademarks are owned by Motive.co, and no right is granted to Customer to use any of the foregoing except as expressly permitted herein or by Motive.co's previous written consent.

IPR Claims

If a third party claims that Customer's use of the Product infringes any copyright, trademark or trade secret, Customer must promptly notify Motive.co in writing. If such a claim arises out of an infringement by Motive.co, Motive.co shall defend and hold Customer harmless against direct costs, damages and/or reasonable attorneys fees that are included in a final judgement against Customer (without right of appeal) or in a settlement approved by Motive.co that are attributable to Customer's use of the Product, provided that Customer is current in the payment of all applicable Fees prior to a claim and Customer reasonably cooperates with Motive.co and allows Motive.co to control the defence of such claims and all related settlement negotiations. Motive's obligations hereunder are contingent on the following conditions: (a) Customer must notify Motive.co in writing promptly after Customer becomes aware of a claim or the possibility thereof; and (b) Customer must grant Motive.co or its licensors the sole control of the settlement, compromise, negotiation, and defence of any such action; and (c) Customer must provide Motive.co and its licensors with all information related to the action that is reasonably requested by Motive.co or such persons.

IPR Injunction

If an injunction is sought or obtained against Customer due to its use of the Products, as a result of a third party claim, Motive.co may, as its option: (a) use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the right for Customer to continue to use the Product in accordance with this Agreement; (b) replace or modify the Products so that it is non-infringing; or (c) If either (a) or (b) is not commercially feasible, terminate the subscription and licence and refund the subscription fees received from Customer, less a usage charge based on a lineal amortisation schedule.

Claims regarding Customer Data

If Customer's use of the Product, or any Customer Data submitted to the Product or to the Professional Services, harms any person, violates any law, or infringes any Intellectual Property Rights, trade secrets or other third-party rights, Customer shall defend, indemnify and hold Motive.co harmless from any costs, damages and/or reasonable attorney's fees suffered by Motive.co as a result. Motive.co will give Customer prompt notice if such claims arise. Customer will have sole control over Customer's defence and over any settlements provided the latter is not prejudicial to Motive.co, in which case Customer shall ask for Motive.co's consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

No Waiver

The failure of either Party at any time to require performance by the other Party of any provision of this Agreement shall in no way affect that Party's right to enforce such provisions, nor shall the waiver by either party of any breach of any provision of these Terms and Conditions be taken or held to be a waiver of any further breach of the same provision.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, in no event may this Agreement be assigned by Customer to a competitor of Motive.co and any attempt to do so will be void and will be grounds for termination of the Subscription.

Severability

If any provision of these Terms and Conditions shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unenforceable, or void, the remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and the stricken provision shall be replaced, to the extent possible, with a legal, enforceable, and valid provision that is as similar in tenor to the stricken provision as is legally possible.
